

The Roman Catholic would be lost without his pope and priest.
The Christian Scientist would be lost without Mary Baker Eddy's works.
The "Latter Day Saint" would be lost without his Book of Mormon.

THIS?

TO
THIS?

JESUS DECLARED THAT HE IS THE GOOD SHEPHERD, AND SAID:
" . . . . the sheep hear his voice; and he calls his own sheep by name and leads them out. And when he brings out his own sheep, he goes before them; and the sheep follow him, for they know his voice. Yet they will by no means follow a stranger, but will flee from him, for they do not know the voice of strangers" (JOHN 10.3-5)

YOU OUGHT TO REMAIN A JEHOVAH'S WITNESS

- IF you are still sure that the Watch Tower Organization is being guided by God even after it has admitted publishing false prophecies, and has changed its mind on major doctrines.
- IF you want to waste your life listening to a "prophet" that has already told the world to expect "Armageddon" in 1914, 1925, 1940, 1941, 1975.
- IF you really believe there are no true Christians "outside the Organization" who understand your situation, and are waiting to help you.

- We want to SHOW YOU the unscriptural doctrines of the Watch Tower Bible and Tract Society
- We want to WARN YOU of the futility of finding salvation through its teachings
- We want to URGE YOU to look to Jesus Christ alone for salvation.
- We want to ENCOURAGE YOU as a new Christian by putting you in touch with other ex-Witnesses who now know God as their Saviour.

It could well be that the Holy Spirit is beginning to show you things you did not think were possible, and to admit in your heart some things you never thought you would. For in your own soul you know you still have no peace with God.

Perhaps you have tried to offset this by putting in as many hours as possible for the Society. You have been a good "Witness". And yet . . . . .

It has been known on numerous occasions that God has saved some Jehovah's Witnesses while they were still in the "organization", i.e. officially still JW's. Should this have happened to you, obviously you will know the difficulties involved. But the most important thing - indeed the only thing that ultimately matters - is that you have owned what you are in God's sight, i.e. a guilty sinner. And you have come to terms with who Jesus is. That He is God manifested in flesh.

The marvel of it all is that no one would have ever convinced you of these things. It is the work of the Holy Spirit to do that. This is what Jesus was referring to when He said the Spirit would "convict the world of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgement" (JOHN 16:8), and it is what Paul meant when he said ". . . . no one can say that Jesus is Lord except by the Holy Spirit" (I COR. 12:3).

Right now you may feel that all eyes are on you, that your every move is being watched. Don't worry. God will not abandon you (PHIL. 1:6). Sooner or later, at the right time, He will lead you into fellowship with other saved sinners. They are called Christians. It's the name of Jesus they rely on.

Had you or they lived in Jesus' day, you too would have been put out of the synagogue (JOHN 12:37-42). But don't worry. Jesus is outside of the synagogue, that is, outside of organised religion.

One of the wonderful things that makes Christianity unique is that Jesus is always with the believer, by the indwelling presence of the Holy Spirit (JOHN 14:16,17; ROM. 8:9; GAL. 4:6). And this is the inevitable reason why you know that having abandoned all hope in anything but the blood of Jesus you know you have not been deceived. God has pardoned you completely for Jesus' sake. Having punished the sinless Christ instead of us, God is utterly satisfied. The shed blood of the Son appeased the wrath of the Father (ISA. 53).

Right now you are going to need fellowship and encouragement. You will not be on your own. In His own way God will bring you into touch with others who have had a similar if not same experience, and who believe as you now do (II PET. 1:1).

There was a time when you were talked out of wanting to go to heaven. But now, all because of Jesus Christ the Lord (who He is, and what He has done for you on the cross) you have an inheritance in heaven (I PET. 1:3,4).
